

Davidson College Archives
Oral History Program

The purpose of the Davidson College Archives Oral History Program is to gather and preserve interviews for historical and scholarly use. A recording of your interview will be made the by the interviewer and any transcription thereof which may be made will be added to the Davidson College Archives. These materials may be made available for research by scholars, for scholarly publications, and other related purposes, consistent with the College's mission, including in the archives, and via digital means such as scans and podcasts, unless restricted by you. Participation in the program is entirely voluntary.

We, the undersigned, have read the above and, in view of the scholarly value of this interview, we knowingly and voluntarily permit the Davidson College Archives the full use of this interview. We hereby assign all my rights of every kind whatever, including copyright, pertaining to this interview and any subsequent interviews in this series, both during my lifetime and after my death, whether or not such rights are now known, to the Davidson College Archives.
